EXCITING NEWS

Holy Spirit Church Purchase Transforms Service at the Bullhead Regional Food Bank

We are thrilled to announce the recent purchase of the Holy Spirit Church property located right next door. This project marks a major step forward in enhancing the services we provide to our community. This building will be retrofitted to house our new administration office and create a central hub where our clients can come inside to register for assistance in a comfortable and welcoming environment.

This move allows us to completely revamp our distribution process. By streamlining operations, we will be able to deliver food and essential items more efficiently, reduce wait times, and ensure that families and individuals can wait indoors, protected from extreme heat or cold, while accessing the support they need.

A project of this magnitude would not be possible without the support of the BHHS Legacy Foundation, whose generous assistance is helping us bring this vision to life. Their commitment to our mission ensures that the Bullhead Regional Food Bank can continue to serve our community effectively and compassionately.

We are excited for the positive impact this new space will have on both our staff and the clients we serve. This transformation represents not just a new building, but a renewed commitment to efficiency, comfort, and dignity for every person who walks through our doors.

Welcome 2026!

CASINO RESORT

Though hunger bites
with sharpest teeth,

A quiet strength
finds life beneath;

A shared small bite,
a helping hand,

Can build a bridge
across the land,

And turn a hollow,
aching need,

To seeds of hope,
a kinder deed,

Where every crumb's
a promise bright,

And love's warm glow
ignites the light.

A Year of Impact at the Bullhead Regional Food Bank

As we look back on the past year, we are proud of the meaningful impact made by the Bullhead Regional Food Bank in partnership with our community. Responding to hunger is not just about food—it is about access, dignity, and ensuring our neighbors feel supported during difficult times.

Throughout the 2025 year, the Food Bank processed 2,605,114 pounds of food to 85,610 individuals and families across our service area. These efforts supported seniors on fixed incomes, working families, and children who rely on consistent access to nutritious food. This impact is possible because of our dedicated volunteers, who are the heart of our operation. With the generosity of people who give of themselves and their time, volunteers contributed 22,781 hours to sorting, packing, and distributing food. Their commitment allows the Food Bank to operate efficiently while maximizing every donated dollar.

We are also grateful for the continued trust of our donors and community partners. Through food drives, grants, and financial contributions, your support strengthens our ability to meet growing demand and invest in improvements that enhance the client experience.

As we move into the new year, the Bullhead Regional Food Bank remains committed to serving our community with compassion, efficiency, and respect. The progress made this year reflects what is possible when a community comes together with a shared purpose—and we look forward to building on this momentum in the year ahead.
